Oscar von Memerty

Disadvantage to Advantage

Oscar was born with a rare fatal genetic illness, MPS 6. At 20 years old he stands just 117 cms tall, has aluminium screws in his left leg, recently had a two cornea transplant, and has survived two bone marrow transplants and a ten minute cardiac arrest. Despite all of this he has discovered a thrilling talent for hip hop and developed a powerful and unique style of motivational speaking and stand-up comedy. His message of overcoming huge obstacles and turning adversity into triumph is guaranteed to not only inspire your audience, but because of his talent, humour and charm, will also truly entertain and empower them.

Inspirational Empowering Entertainment!
