

Rusty Labuschagne

“Everyone is faced with challenges, but is it who you are, and the depth of your determination that will get you through life’s darkest moments”

You will be immediately struck by Rusty’s sincerity and humility as he delivers a dramatic account of his transformational experience following such a traumatic experience!

In 2003, without a body and against police evidence, Rusty was wrongly convicted of drowning a fish poacher and spent ten harrowing years under horrendous conditions in Zimbabwe’s prisons during Mugabe’s rule.

In the process, Rusty developed not only a lifesaving resilience but also empathy and a keen desire to help his fellow inmates. With his faith in God, positive mental attitude, leadership qualities, and lessons in forgiveness, gratitude and humility, Rusty brings a personal, transformative and authentic message of hope and freedom.

Rusty explains how to harness inner strength and let go of what we cannot control.

Beating Chains Victory over Injustice

“I write about being subjected to conditions most people would find unbearable, having to draw on my inner resources and strengths to endure the unimaginable. In the process I not only developed a life-saving resilience but also an empathy and keen desire to help my fellow inmates. My positive mental attitude, leadership qualities, and lessons in forgiveness, gratitude and humility bring a personal, transformative and authentic message of hope and freedom.”
